

AVEVA GROUP PLC (the "Company")

REMUNERATION COMMITTEE TERMS OF REFERENCE

1. Membership

- 1.1 The committee shall comprise a total of four members (at least one of whom shall be a Schneider Director, (being a non-executive director nominated by Schneider Electric in accordance with the terms of the Relationship Agreement entered between the Company and Schneider Electric (a "Schneider Director"))<sup>1</sup>. The other three shall be independent non-executive directors. The chair of the board may also serve on the committee as an additional member if he or she was considered independent on appointment as chair.<sup>2</sup> Members of the committee shall be appointed by the board, on the recommendation of the nomination committee and in consultation with the chair of the remuneration committee.
- 1.2 Only members of the committee have the right to attend committee meetings. However, other individuals such as the chief executive, the head of human resources and external advisers may be invited to attend for all or part of any meeting, as and when appropriate and necessary.
- 1.3 Appointments to the committee are made by the board and shall be for a period of up to three years extendable by no more than two additional three-year periods, so long as members (other than the chair of the board, if he or she is a member of the committee) continue to be independent.
- 1.4 The board shall appoint the committee chair who shall be an independent non-executive director. Before appointment the chair of the committee shall have served on a remuneration committee for at least 12 months. In the absence of the committee chair and/or an appointed deputy, the remaining members present shall elect one of themselves to chair the meeting who would, so far as practicable, qualify under these terms of reference to be appointed to that position by the board. The chair of the board shall not be chair of the committee.

2. Secretary

The company secretary, or his or her nominee, shall act as the secretary of the committee and will ensure that the committee receives information and papers in a timely manner to enable full and proper consideration to be given to the issues.

3. Quorum

The quorum necessary for the transaction of business shall be two, one of whom shall be a Schneider Director. If no quorum is present at any such meeting, a Schneider Director need not be present at any adjourned or reconvened meeting to consider the same business, nor required for the quorum of such adjourned or reconvened meeting. A duly convened meeting of the committee at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions vested in or exercisable by the committee.

<sup>1</sup> The Company and Schneider Electric entered into the Relationship Agreement on 1 March 2018 (as amended on 15 March 2019) in connection with the AVEVA group's combination with Schneider Electric's software business and as required by the Financial Conduct Authority's Listing Rules. Further details of the Relationship Agreement are set out paragraph 2 of Part XIII of the combined prospectus and circular dated [6] November 2020 published by the Company, which are available on the Company's website.

4. Meetings

The committee shall meet at least twice a year and otherwise as required.

5. Notice of meetings

- 5.1 Meetings of the committee shall be called by the secretary of the committee at the request of the committee chair.
- 5.2 Unless otherwise agreed, notice of each meeting confirming the venue, time and date together with an agenda if items to be discussed, shall be forwarded to each member of the committee, any other person required to attend and all other non-executive directors, no later than five working days before the date of the meeting. Supporting papers shall be sent to committee members and to other attendees, as appropriate, at the same time.
- 5.3 Shorter notice and/or late submission of supporting papers will be permitted at the discretion of the committee chair.
- 5.4 Notices, agendas and supporting papers can be sent in electronic form instead of in hard copy where the recipient has agreed to receive documents electronically and where circumstances permit such delivery.
- 5.5 The committee may hold meetings by telephone or using any other method of electronic communication whereby the participants are able to communicate effectively with each other, and may take decisions without a meeting by unanimous written consent, when deemed necessary or desirable by the committee chair.

6. Minutes of meetings

- 6.1 The committee chair shall nominate a minute taker, who shall minute the proceedings and resolutions of all committee meetings, including the names of those present and in attendance.
- 6.2 Draft minutes of committee meetings shall be circulated promptly to all members of the committee. Once approved, minutes should be circulated to all other members of the board unless in the opinion of the committee chairman it would be inappropriate to do so.

7. Annual general meeting

The committee chair should attend the annual general meeting to answer any shareholder questions on the committee's activities.

8. Duties

The committee should carry out the duties below for the parent company, major subsidiary undertakings and the group as a whole, as appropriate.

The committee shall:

- 8.1 have delegated responsibility for determining the policy for executive remuneration and setting remuneration (including pension rights and any compensation payments) for the Company's chair, executive directors and executive leadership team, including the Chairman Emeritus and any senior consultants. The board itself or, where required by the Company's articles of association, the shareholders should determine the remuneration of the non-executive directors within the limits set in the Company's articles of association. No director or senior manager shall be involved in any decisions as to their own remuneration;

- 8.2 in determining such policy, take into account all factors which it deems necessary including relevant legal and regulatory requirements, the provisions and recommendations of the Code and associated guidance. The policy shall address clarity, simplicity, risk, predictability, proportionality and alignment to the Company's culture. The objective of such policy shall be to attract, retain and motivate executive management of the quality required to run the Company and its major subsidiary undertakings successfully without paying more than is necessary, having regard to views of shareholders and other stakeholders. The remuneration policy should have regard to the risk appetite of the Company and alignment to the Company's strategic long-term goals. A significant proportion of remuneration should be structured so as to link rewards to corporate and individual performance and designed to promote the long-term success of the Company;
- 8.3 when setting remuneration policy for executives, review workforce remuneration and related policies and the alignment of incentives and rewards with culture;
- 8.4 review the ongoing appropriateness and relevance of the remuneration policy;
- 8.5 within the terms of the agreed policy and in consultation with the chair and/or chief executive, as appropriate, determine the total individual remuneration package of the chairman, each executive director, company secretary and members of the executive leadership team including bonuses, incentive payments and share options or other share awards;
- 8.6 obtain reliable, up-to-date information about remuneration in other companies of comparable scale and complexity. To help it fulfil its obligations the committee shall have full authority to appoint remuneration consultants and to commission or purchase any reports, surveys or information which it deems necessary, within any budgetary restraints imposed by the board;
- 8.7 be exclusively responsible for establishing the selection criteria, selecting, appointing and setting the terms of reference for any remuneration consultants who advise the committee;
- 8.8 approve the design of, and determine targets for, any performance related pay schemes operated by the Company and approve the total annual payments made under such schemes;
- 8.9 review the design of all share incentive plans for approval by the board and shareholders. For any such plans, determine each year whether awards will be made, and if so, the overall amount of such awards, the individual awards to executive directors, company secretary and other designated senior executives and the performance targets to be used;
- 8.10 ensure that remuneration policies, performance related pay schemes and incentive plans enable the use of discretion to override formulaic outcomes;
- 8.11 determine the policy for, and scope of, pension arrangements for each executive director and member of the executive leadership team;
- 8.12 ensure that contractual terms on termination, and any payments made, are fair to the individual, and the Company, that failure is not rewarded and that the duty to mitigate loss is fully recognised;
- 8.13 oversee any major changes in employee benefits structures throughout the Company or group;
- 8.14 agree the policy for authorising claims for expenses from the directors;

- 8.15 work and liaise as necessary with all other board committees; and
- 8.16 have regard to the relevant provisions of the Companies Act 2006 (the "2006 Act") including that the directors' remuneration policy required to be prepared under the 2006 Act be put to shareholders of the Company for approval at a general meeting at least once every three years and that the directors' remuneration report (other than the directors' remuneration policy) be put to shareholders for approval at a general meeting annually.

9. Reporting responsibilities

- 9.1 The committee chair shall report to the board on its proceedings after each meeting on all matters within its duties and responsibilities.
- 9.2 The committee shall make whatever recommendations to the board it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where action or improvement is needed.
- 9.3 The committee shall ensure that provisions regarding disclosure of information, including pensions, as set out in the Large and Medium-sized Companies and Groups (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 and the Code, are fulfilled and produce a report of the Company's remuneration policy and practices to be included in the Company's annual report and ensure each year that it is put to shareholders for approval at the annual general meeting of the Company. If the committee has appointed remuneration consultants, the annual report of the Company's remuneration policy should identify such consultants and state whether they have any other connection with the Company.
- 9.4 Through the chair of the board, ensure that the Company maintains contact as required with its principal shareholders about remuneration.

10. Other matters

The committee shall:

- 10.1 have access to sufficient resources in order to carry out its duties, including access to the company secretariat for assistance as required;
- 10.2 be provided with appropriate and timely training, both in the form of an induction programme for new members and on an ongoing basis for all members;
- 10.3 give due consideration to laws, regulations and any published guidelines or recommendations regarding the remuneration of directors of listed/non listed companies and formation and operation of share schemes including but not limited to the provisions of the Code, the requirements of the Financial Conduct Authority's Listing Rules, Prospectus Rules and Disclosure Guidance and Transparency Rules as well as guidelines published by the Investment Association and any other applicable rules, as appropriate; and
- 10.4 arrange for periodic reviews of its own performance and, at least annually, review its constitution and terms of reference to ensure it is operating at maximum effectiveness and recommend any changes it considers necessary to the board for approval.

11. Authority

The committee is authorised by the board to obtain, at the Company's expense, outside legal or other professional advice on any matters within its terms of reference.
